Gleichen Young Men's Club

The Gleichen Young Men's Club is now installed in the renovated club rooms in the Royal Bank Block. This club has been organized for the purpose of having a place where men could congregate for social and intellectual intercourse and should be a great boon to the district. The club has in connection a library furnished by the University of Alberta, also magazines, current literature and daily papers. The rooms are suitably furnished and any night the activities of the members is shown in their use of the rooms.

Last week a very interesting debate was held with much apparent enjoyment and entertainment to those who were present.

Tonight, Thursday, at 7 o'clock another debate takes place and all men are entirely welcome to attend. This debate is held at this hour to enable the members to later attend the memorial meeting in the Opera House.

Anyone who is interested and desires to become a member can receive all necessary information from J. A. Menard.

The club takes this opportunity to extend a general welcome to everyone and invites all men of sixteen years and over to become members.

War Memorial Meeting Tonight Thursday in Opera House

The public meeting of Gleichen War Memorial Committee promises to have a big attendance and for that reason it has now been arranged to hold the meeting in the Opera House as it is believed Messrs. Henderson & Mallory's office is too small to contain the number who will attend.

The committee is quite anxious that all who are interested—and every person should be interested—will be present to express their views. It is hoped the fullest discussion will be indulged in that the very best results may be obtained, and that Gleichen will eventually have something that will be a real honor to our soldiers and a permanent credit to our town and district.

G.D.A.A. Social Entertainment Friday, February 7th

Gleichen Band in Attendance

The committee in charge of the Gleichen District Agricultural social entertainment and dance to be held in the Opera House on Friday evening, February 7th, is hard at work making preparations to make it a success and to see that all who attend have a good time.

At this writing the committee is not quite prepared to make the announcement of their program for the evening, but assure us that it will be an excellent one. Efforts are being made to secure some of the best speakers in the province to assist local orators.

It is well to bear in mind that the main object is to have a good time socially and to impart to all the knowledge of the splendid condition the association is now in.

Every person is invited to attend—that means you and all your friends.

NOTICE

All users of town light and water are hereby notified that all fees for light and water must be paid at the Town Hall on or before the Fifteenth of the month following the one for which it is due.

If such fees be not paid on or before the Fifteenth of the following month the light or water service shall be immediately cut off and a fee of Two Dollars shall be charged for re-connecting in either case.

It has been arranged to give a prize of $5.00 to the lady whose box brings the highest bid and $2.50 to the second highest.

Everybody is welcome and a good time is assured.

Bolsheviki Spurned By Loyal Russians

Paris. — Prince Lvoff, former Russian premier, in a statement strongly deprecated the decision of the supreme war council regarding Russia.

"We never thought," said Prince Lvoff, "that the conference would compromise its peace work by renewing relations with our tyrants. The Bolsheviki have won their greatest victory in Paris. The decision of the council not only is of danger to us but to the whole world. It gives new impulse to anarchy."

Sergius Sazonoff, the former Russian foreign minister under the old regime, and now representing the government at Yekaterinodar for the Siberian government at Omsk, has declared in a statement that he would not participate in the conference proposed by the supreme war council, with Bolsheviki representatives.

M. Sazonoff declared to the Echo de Paris, that he would not go to Princes Islands for the proposed conference between representatives of the various Russian factions and the allied governments. He added that it was very likely that neither the government of Admiral Kolchak nor that of General Denikins would send emissaries, for they were fully aware of what Bolshevism meant.

Charles R. Pusta, representative of the Estonian government at the peace conference, said that the Estonians were ready to send delegates to the Prince's Islands to give their views to the powers, but that they wish to maintain the right to put forward the same views at the peace conference in Paris, from which they expect definite satisfaction of their claims.

Great Britain May Restore Mesopotamia

In the Future It May Become a Great Country

London. — Improvements of great importance have been made in the channel Shate el Arab, which is the river formed by the confluence of the Euphrates and Tigris rivers, according to the Journal of the Mesopotamian board of trade. Ocean going steamers may now go up the river from the Persian Gulf as far as Nahrumar, which is about twenty miles above Basra.

Part of the Journal is devoted to the irrigation projects which are now being carried out in the valley of the Euphrates. Regarding the immense benefits which might be derived from systematic irrigation, the Journal says:

"In olden times lower Mesopotamia, as the result of artificial irrigation, was a forest of perennial verdure and a country of great cities thronged with thriving people. The dread hand of the Turk has pressed heavily upon Mesopotamia and its people. In the past it was a great country. In the future it may again become a great country, but at present it is moribund. Yet the rich soil retains life. A wonderful recovery is within possibility and Great Britain has solved more difficult problems in the empire than are presented by the restoration of Mesopotamia."

Seeds Can Be Imported
Ottawa. — The Canada food board has been informed that field and garden seeds have been removed from the restricted export list of the United States and that American shippers in future do not require licenses for shipments of seeds coming into the Dominion. The removal of United States restrictions on flour also extends to Canada.

Monarchists Still Control Oporto
London. — A wireless message received from Madrid says reports from frontier towns are to the effect that Portuguese war vessels are bombarding Oporto, which is still in the control of the monarchists.

The despatch adds rumors persist that former King Manuel is about to land in Portugal.

Minister of War Assumes Command of German Army

Amsterdam. — Supreme command of the German peace army has been transferred from the people's commissioners to the minister of war, who will be responsible to the government. The transfer was made with the approval of the soldiers' and workmen's council, which will still be responsible for all social and economic regulations concerning the army.

Officers will in future wear a dark blue stripe on the left sleeve. All other distinctive marks have been abolished. The obligation to salute is reciprocal, but has been abolished in the big cities.

London. — Since German troops were summoned to put down the Spartacan uprising in Berlin the army has been assuming a position of greater importance, according to advices received here.

Irish Peace Delegates

Dublin. — According to the provisional constitution of the Irish republic now before the "Dail Eirean," legislative powers are to be vested in deputies elected from existing parliamentary constituencies. The ministry will consist of a president and four executive officers — secretaries of finance, home affairs, foreign affairs, and national defense. All revenues will be raised on the vote of the "Dail Eirean," the constitution may be altered upon seven days' notice. Count Plunkett, Professor Edward De Valera and Arthur Griffith will probably be appointed Irish delegates to the peace congress.

Germans Wanted a Short Cut to Peace

Bombs From Air Were a Nightmare to Them

London. — First hand information as to the results of the bombing of Bruges gives a vivid idea of why the Germans, as the British aerial strength developed, wanted to find a short cut to peace.

"One gazes amazed at the gigantic work involved in the defensive fortifications," declares a writer just back from Bruges. "Bombs from the air became a nightmare to the Germans. All the dock area is full of bomb holes. Pontoons, sheds, wharves and dugouts covered with reinforced concrete are in ruins. One heavy bomb struck a destroyer in a pontoon drydock and destroyed both vessel and pontoon. Another pontoon was so badly damaged that the Germans blew it up, together with the submarine in it. The latter now lies in halves, the bow in the remains of the pontoon and the stern blown on the bank of the canal."

Arms Found By Government

Will Consider Regulations Regarding 1,000 Bolsheviki

Warsaw. — Several thousand rifles, many machine guns and thousands of hand grenades, intended for use in an attempt to overturn the Pilsudski government, which has now been succeeded by the Paderewski government, were discovered in Warsaw. The government authorities also arrested 1,000 Bolsheviki. The arrests were made in an effort to secure orderly elections to the national assembly.

Prince Sappica, who led the brief and futile attempt against the Pilsudski government a fortnight ago, is still in prison. He will be released when the political situation becomes settled. However, there is no law under which he can be prosecuted.

State of Hedjaz Wants Autonomy
Paris. — Prince Feisal, a son of the king of the Hedjaz, has compiled a memorandum for presentation to the peace conference asking complete independence and autonomy for the Arabian state of the Hedjaz to consist of Syria, Upper Mesopotamia, Lower Mesopotamia, Yemen and Nejd. The territory of Nejd is a tribal state. The prince invites the peace conference to send a commission to these districts to ascertain the real desires of the people.

Proclaim Tipperary Military Area
Dublin. — The British government has decided to proclaim the Tipperary district a military area in consequence of the killing of the two policemen and the seizure of blasting explosives which they were guarding, while it was being transported to a quarry. The alleged crime was committed by unknown persons who made their escape.

Bismarck Had Plans To Destroy France

Document Found Recently Among Papers of French Literary Man

Paris. — Prince Bismarck contemplated a second war by Germany against the French, which would result in the virtual destruction of France, according to a document published in the Petit Parisien. The document purports to be a note made by the ex-counsellor of the then King of Hanover, summing up a conversation with Bismarck, and is stated to have been found recently among the papers of a French literary man. "I am positive that if I live long enough I am destined to destroy France," Bismarck is quoted as saying, "for in another war I will take from her colonies and her fleet, not to mention billions, and will dismember her a second time. For this purpose I am going to prepare the German people to become more powerful."

Troops Near Petrograd

Impossible for Them to Attack Without Outside Aid

London. — Estonian officials claim that the defeat of the Bolsheviki, after the capture of Narva, amounted to a complete rout, according to a Helsingfors despatch to the Daily Mail.

Estonian advance guards are now within 75 miles of Petrograd, and continue to capture prisoners, arms and munitions, their booty including an armored train.

It has been learned that the Estonians intend to push as far east as the Luga and Pliusa rivers, which will enable them to encircle the city of Pskov. It is said to be impossible for them to attack Petrograd without outside aid.

Assistance for Poland

Must Be Given Within the Next Few Weeks

Paris. — France favors immediate armed intervention by the allies in Poland, according to authoritative unofficial information. The French view is said to be that only military assistance can save Poland from being crushed by the Bolsheviki and that such assistance must be given within the next few weeks. It is claimed that the sending of food or munitions to Poland would only serve to strengthen the hands of the Bolsheviki since they would ultimately capture the supplies.

Sinn Feiners Killed Two Policemen

Dublin. — The Sinn Fein parliament provided only a one-day sensation. Its members held a brief meeting at the Mansion house, but behind closed doors. Afterwards Count Plunkett told the reporters that a statement of the business transacted would be furnished to the press later, thus following the precedent of the Paris conference.

A group of a hundred young men gathered outside during the secret session, but no excitement of any kind was shown. The public was far more interested in the murder of two policemen in Tipperary at the time the parliament was meeting.

Were Refused Permits

New York. — Passports have been refused the three Americans selected to attend the international Socialist conference at Lausanne, Switzerland, next month, according to a telegram received at the Rand School of Social Science from Representative Moyer. London. The telegram did not state reasons for refusing the passports.

The American delegates were Alderman Algernon Lee, of New York; James O'Neil, of Brooklyn; and John M. Work, of Chicago.

May Divide Work

Paris. — According to the Temps, the peace conference has under contemplation the creation of two inter-allied commissions, one on a league of nations and the other on the compensation Germany must pay for damages done. The newspaper adds that the American plan contemplates the forming of three other commissions, one on territorial questions, the second on overseas territories and the third on responsibilities.

Faith in League

Berne. — "President Wilson will achieve a workable and feasible league of nations and with the full strength and influence of Great Britain solidly behind him," Arthur Henderson, British labor leader, declared to the Associated Press.

National Day of Intercession

Ottawa. — Sunday, February 16, has been fixed by the government as a national day of intercession. The deliberations of the peace conference may result "in the establishment of a world-wide peace on a just and permanent foundation."

COAL MINERS STRIKE

Whole Yorkshire Coal Field Probably Will Be Idle

London. — Industrial unrest throughout the United Kingdom is on the increase. In addition to the threatened railway strike the whole Yorkshire coal field probably will be idle, throwing 150,000 men out of employment, while preparations are being made in Scotland for a general strike for a 40-hour week.

The cause of the trouble in Yorkshire is somewhat similar to that which is occurring in other parts of the country. The operators there have locked out some 40,000 men who insisted on taking twenty minutes of the employers' time for meals.

In reply to the lockout the Yorkshire miners' association has declared a strike. The dispute in London between the engineers and their employers has improved somewhat. Some of the employers have granted the demands of the engineering trade, but the electrical workers are now threatening to strike.

May Export Low Grade Flour

Ottawa. — The Canada food board has notified all millers in Canada that special permits will now be granted for those applying allowing them separation of flour into patents, clears, low grades and other flour extractions, provided such flour is only sold outside of Canada, to West Indies, Central and South America. Permits for the export of flour to these countries will be freely granted for straight run flour or any of the separations above cited. Applications for export to Newfoundland, in order to meet the requirements of the Newfoundland food board will be granted for standard flour only.

Club Must Still Be Held Over Huns

Taft Declared League of Nations Necessary

St. Catharines, Ont. — "We were fighting, not the Hohenzollerns alone, although they were leading, but we were fighting the German people, impregnated with the doctrine of world domination," declared W. H. Taft, former United States president, in a lecture here. "A surgical operation was needed, not by a sharp instrument, but a club. This we have done, and we must hold that club for further application if necessary, in case it should later develop that a radical cure has not been effected."

Mr. Taft declared that, "If we are to clinch our purposes in the war, a league of nations is necessary." A movement is on foot to open a series of conventions to educate the American people to the need of such a league by the holding of nine conventions in as many cities in various sections of that country in February, and he had decided to try it on Canada first.

Second Revolt in Two Weeks

Washington. — The present revolution in Portugal, seeking to restore the monarchy, is the second movement within two weeks, it was learned at the state department. Information reaching the department shows that this outbreak, about ten days ago, was suppressed by the government and that several of the leaders are still in jail.

Survey Aerial Route

Melbourne. — It is announced that the commonwealth government has sanctioned the formation of a company to survey an aerial route between Australia and the Far East.

Sir George McL. Brown.

A NEW CANADIAN KNIGHT—A new picture of Sir Geo. McLaren Brown, General European manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has been honored as the result of his splendid services as unpaid assistant director of transport for the British Government during the war.

CANADIANS IN GERMANY Contracted a Mock Marriage

Two Canadian Divisions are to Remain Until Further Orders

Ottawa. — The militia department reaffirmed its denial of the story of General Dods, in Montreal, that all Canadian forces have been withdrawn from Germany. "The information we have is wholly in the contrary," stated the chief of the general staff. He had been inclined to think that Gen. Dods had been misunderstood or misquoted.

The known plans in regard to the Canadian divisions are that the third division is being withdrawn from France and Belgium, but will, on account of traffic conditions in France, march to the sea by easy stages instead of being moved by train. From there it will be transported to England. The movement to Canada would therefore start about March 1. As far as known at present, the other two Canadian divisions are to remain as a part of the army of occupation in Germany until further orders.

Express Disappointment

Paris. — W. F. Massey, premier of New Zealand, and Sir J. G. Ward, minister of finance of New Zealand, have arrived in Paris and expressed disappointment at the decision of the supreme council to give the country only one delegate at the peace congress. The New Zealand ministers represent two different parties in New Zealand and both wish to be present at the conference. They said they would endeavor to have the decision changed so that both could attend the peace sessions.

Vital Questions at Peace Conference

Interested in Dominions

Paris. — The announcement of the aspirations of the British Dominions is being discussed with the keenest interest in official circles in Paris. The question is being frequently asked whether this present important step is to be followed later by insistence on the part of the Dominions of a right as nations to have a full share in dictating the foreign policy of the empire so far as it affects the Dominions.

"The British empire is in one sense a national entity and in another a league of nations in itself," was the way one high personage summarized the situation.

Do Not Share in War Gratuities

Next of Kin of Deceased Soldiers Provided for Under Pension Regulations

Ottawa. — There is absolutely no truth in the statement appearing in certain newspapers that the war service gratuity payable to men of the C.E.F. on retirement or discharge will also be paid to war widows, dependents and next of kin of soldiers killed in action or who died of wounds.

An official denial of this statement was issued by the militia department, and at the same time it was pointed out that the order in council makes no provision of this nature. The next of kin of deceased soldiers are provided for under the pension regulations.

The order in council does, however, make provisions for payment of the gratuity to the dependents of a soldier who dies subsequent to his discharge or retirement, and before he or his dependents have received any part or the whole of the gratuity. It states that if there survive some dependents of the gratuity equal to separation allowance the portion of the gratuity unpaid at the time of his death should be payable to such dependents. In the case of a soldier who has no dependents entitled to separation allowance, and who dies subsequent to discharge before receiving any or all of the gratuity, the portion of the gratuity unpaid at the time of his death shall not become payable.

PROUD OF ACHIEVEMENT

Greatest Change in Habits of People Ever Recorded

London. — "I am constantly receiving reports from British Columbia of the splendid results of prohibition," writes Bishop Perrin, formerly Bishop of British Columbia.

A great deal is appearing here just now also concerning prohibition in the United States. The Times, however, editorially remarks:

"It seems hardly to be understood here that prohibition in America has not yet actually taken place. Meanwhile, in this country, where we have followed a more moderate policy," the Times continues, "there has been wrought the greatest change in the habits of the people ever recorded, and the greatest reduction in drunkenness ever accomplished in any country. This is the one belligerent country that can show such records. Others have been held up to our admiration as patterns to follow, but when enquiry is made as to results, there are none worth showing. When any of our neighbors can show a positive record that will compare with ours it will be time enough to admire their achievements."

Portuguese Are Concerned Over African Colonies

Paris. — Portuguese circles in this city are greatly concerned over the situation in their country. They fear especially that their possessions in Africa, forming the third largest colonial empire on that continent, may come into question and that some European state may point out that Portugal, being in a state of anarchy, is unfit to rule other peoples.

The Portuguese hope that the delegates attending the peace congress will realize the sacrifices sustained

Paris. — The council of the great powers have definitely set four main subjects to be presented at the full conference.

First, international labor legislation.

Second, responsibility and punishment for the war.

Third, indemnities, and Fourth, internationalization of ports, waterways and railways.

These subjects are not to be discussed in detail, but will be immediately referred to committees for study and report.

The American plans of the first topic are already well advanced, while there is no definite information on the second point, relative to responsibility and punishment for the war, the sentiment in American quarters inclines toward a negative attitude, with some suggestions that those responsible, who have fled from Germany, should be returned to their own country for Germany to deal with them.

The third subject, indemnities, will not be presented in the conference with the amounts claimed by each government, but a committee will be charged with the task of assembling these amounts and also of determining the probable maximum the enemy powers are able to pay.

The meeting will have added importance in bringing together the supreme war council, with President Wilson, the premiers and foreign ministers, reinforced by Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig, General Pershing and General Diaz and the full membership of the war council at Versailles.

The subject for consideration is not Russia, or Poland as was supposed, but the status of the present military occupation of Germany, on which the council desires information from the military leaders. In some allied quarters it has been suggested that the American strength in the occupied regions should be relatively larger than that of the other forces, as the European allies have gone through longer service. This view is not shared by the Americans, where it is maintained that the relative American strength is fully up to the requirements.

Crisis in Argentine

Radical Party Will No Longer Be Responsible for Acts of President

Buenos Ayres. — La Provincia says that the radical party is re-organizing and is preparing to issue a declaration that it will no longer be responsible for the acts of Dr. Hipolito Irigoyen, the president of the republic.

Dr. Irigoyen was elected president of Argentina in June, 1916, as the candidate of the radical party, being the first of his party to be elected president. He took office in October, 1916, for a term of six years. Since assuming the presidency, Dr. Irigoyen has had to reform his cabinet several times. His attitude during the war caused much political dissension in Argentina.

Italians Hold Conference

Discuss Italy's Aspirations From a Strategic Point of View

Paris. — The Italian delegation to the peace conference held a conference with General Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, who arrived in Paris to discuss Italy's aspirations from a military and strategic point of view, with special attention to possession of what the Italians call "the keys of the door on land and seas." To realize this object the Italian delegates, it is said, consider it indispensable that Italy possess the Brenner Pass and also the Dalmatian coast, and Seara and Bebenico. Without this they say it is impossible for Italy to control the Adriatic as otherwise the coast line of central Italy would be at the mercy of any nation possessing Dalmatia.

by Portugal, which they say were very great compared with the size of the country and its wealth.

They say that Portugal asks "only to keep what she already possesses."

The official journal of the Lisbon government has promulgated a decree inflicting heavy fines upon the districts of Oporto, Vizeu and Braga where the monarchists have been in control. The fines vary from $50,000 to $100,000 for every day the districts remain in a state of rebellion.

Express Thanks
Many letters have been received from the Queenstown soldiers overseas by the people of that district expressing their thanks and appreciation of the generous gifts of cash and boxes for Christmas. It would require a paper many times the size of The Call to publish all of them, so we have selected one as a fair representation of them all. It was written by Private Chris H. Penn in England and reads as follows:

John Parker
Pte. Carl Bell
Pte. Bert Snowden

Queenstown Soldiers Express Thanks

It is with a deep sense of gratitude and appreciation that I have to acknowledge receipt of $35 forwarded to me on behalf of the residents of Queenstown District. I consider it a great honor to have been a member of the Dominion's army, whose glorious deeds in this war will live forever, although my own personal services have been so infinitesimal beside those of others. However, now that the war is over I am very glad that I did put in a few months in the front line at any rate.

It has been a long, hard struggle, but at last the righteous cause of the Allies has triumphed, and we can now look forward with every confidence to the final settlement of a lasting peace, and to the longed-for return of those who most worthily to help win it.

Please accept yourself and convey to all the kind friends who so generously subscribed to the fund, my most hearty thanks.

"I am a Dollar! A little ago, perhaps, but still in circulation. I am proud of myself for being in circulation. I am no tomato-can dollar—not I. This town is only my adopted home, but I like it and hope to remain permanently. When I came out of the army I was adopted into a town like this in another province. But, after a time I was sent off to a big city, many miles away. I turned up in a mail-order house. For several years I stayed in that city. Millionaires bought things with me. I didn't like that, but I believe in the plain people. Finally a travelling man brought me to this town and left me here. I was so glad to get back to a smaller town that I was determined to make a desperate effort to stay."

"One day a citizen of this town was to send me back to the big city. I caught him looking over a mail-order catalogue. Suddenly I found my voice and said to him: 'Look here if you'll let me stay in this town I'll circulate around and do you a lot of good. You try a big bookstore with me, and the butcher will buy groceries, and the grocer will buy hardware, and the hardware man will pay the doctor bill with me, and the doctor will spend me with a farmer for oats to feed his horses with, and the farmer will buy some fresh meat from the butcher, who will come around to the dentist to get his tooth mended. In the long run, as you see, I'll be useful to you here at least as long as I'll be useful to you away forever.'"

"The man said it was a mighty fine argument. He hadn't looked at it in that light before, so he went and bought the bookstore, and I began to circulate around home again."

The above article from "Country Life in Canada," for June, illustrates in a striking manner the argument for home buying. The argument applies quite as strongly in the matter of "Made-in-Canada" purchasing. The best results for all concerned are secured by spending the dollar in one's own community. First, giving the preference, where possible, to articles made in the community, second, to "Made-in-Canada" articles, and third, where "Made-in-Canada" articles cannot be secured, preference should be given to those made within the Empire.

BUY A N IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall and in sure good crops, not once only, but every year.

Irriation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insure good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever it intelligently applied.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to ALAN CAMERON, Gen. Supt. of Lands Canadian Pacific Railway, Dept. of Natural Resources, 928 1st St. E. CALGARY, ALBERTA

You can buy irrigated land from the Canadian Pacific Railway at prices up to $50 per acre, with 30 years to pay and the privilege of a loan of $2,000 for improvements.

(8% interest) no principle after first payment until end of fourth year, reduced interest if settlement conditions are complied and no water rental for first year. Contract can be paid off before maturity if desired.

ALBERTA PURE BRED STOCK FOR JAPAN

The market for Alberta pure-bred stock is ever widening. A few weeks ago, much interest was aroused all over the continent by the shipment of a large consignment of pure-bred
Percheron horses from the Namaka
Farm by George Lane, to England.
Now it is learned that some purebred hogs are to be sent from the province to Japan, a well-known breeder in the Edmonton district having an order for two pure-bred Berkshires from that country. It is anticipated that this is only the first of a series of shipments to be made from Alberta to Japan.

For many years farmers of Western Canada have been great importers of pure-bred stock to bring their flocks and herds up to the highest standard, and are only making a start as exporters. That the province is beginning to export so early in its history, however, is one of the proofs of the superior strain of livestock that can be raised there.

GREAT SCOPE FOR DAIRY INDUSTRY

"If we can obtain half of the settlers our province is capable of supporting, the development that is bound to result by opening up our resources is almost beyond comprehension," said a speaker before the Winnipeg Board of Trade recently.
"In northern and central Manitoba
there are large stretches of land where the wild pea vine and other nutritious grasses grow in abundant; land that will support thousands of cattle; there are rich deposits of minerals, marble, glass, sand, clay, timber lands; fish swarms in our lakes and rivers, and an available water power of 3,842,020 h.p., of which only 76,200 h.p. is developed. All that we need to become one of the wealthiest provinces in the Dominion is the development of these resources, and this can only be accomplished by getting the right kind of settlers in sufficient numbers."

There is a wonderful opportunity here, as in Alberta and Saskatchewan for the development of a great dairy industry. The remarkable growth of this industry throughout Western Canada is small compared with the possibilities, and a considerable increase in the production of dairy products may be looked for during the next few years.

Now is the time to roundup all those stray animals. An ad. in
The Call is the quickest way.

THE COMLYN ALIBI

— BY —
HEADON HILL
WARD, LOCK & CO., LIMITED
London, Melbourne, and Toronto

Kenyon looked grave. He had hoped to win Hever from the opposite camp, but this slight of family history was not reassuring. There is no soil so unfertile for the seeds of peace as ground on which the rank weeds of a blood feud have rooted over a long course of years. Hever, no doubt, was a truculent, avaricious ruffian who could be bribed to any crime, but, after hearing Tom's latest contribution to his growing snowball of facts, Kenyon was afraid that he could not be bribed, as he had hoped, to espouse the cause of Sir Anthony West. The dweller in the old wreck, eating his heart out because he was not a barrow knight, would be a hard nut to crack.

"Well, I must try him another way," Kenyon told himself, and he was about to say good night to his youthful colleague when Martha Trevlyn burst like a whirlwind into the attic. The good woman's rugged face was working with excitement. The honest Cornish eyes which could melt so tenderly for her absent master were fiercely eager.

"Miss Mavis Comlyn is below, sir, in the parlor, asking for you," she announced, with a spiteful glance at the boy, to whom, much against her will, she had given asylum. "The poor maid is in sore trouble and has tramped it over the moor, late as it is. Will you come down to her?"

"Of course," Kenyon replied. "Did she use my name in asking for me, or the one I am known by in the village?"

"She mentioned the Reverend Clegg's father, but she wasn't believing it. The dear lamb knows, by one of those ways the pixies tell us, that you're her Tony's friend. It was writ in her sorrowful eyes. She wouldn't have crossed the moor 'at night time else."

Kenyon turned to his gaping understudy. "Good night, Tom," he said. "Go to bed and dream of future triumphs. This is where I come in. But your pitch blende will give us the game in the end."

And as he followed Martha Trevlyn out of the attic he added under his breath the saving clause:

"If anything will."

CHAPTER XXI

The Poisonous Remedy

"Can't think what you're up to with that dratted Burbury boy," declared Martha Trevlyn as she led the way, guttering candle in hand, down the stairs. "A bad lot, the Burburies, clergy though they be. He will land you in a bog, Mr. Kenyon, if you ain't careful."

"I am trying to be that," her lodger assured her. "There is such a thing as the pick of the bunch, you know, Mrs. Trevlyn."

Martha snorted, and having opened the door of the sitting room departed to the back regions without further comment. Mavis Comlyn and Clayton Kenyon faced each other, the girl coming forward with a little cry of pleasure when she recognized him.

"I hoped it would be you, but I could not be sure," she said as they shook hands. "I was only told that I should find a friend of Tony—of Sir Anthony West—at the farm."

"You were told?" came Kenyon's quick question.

"Well I have had an anonymous letter. You shall see it directly. But before I show it to you are you sure that we cannot be overheard? It may be fancy, but I think that I was followed from the dower house."

The curtains were drawn, and Kenyon, without disarranging them, passed his hand behind.

"The window is shut and fastened," he replied. "If we do not raise our voices we shall be all right. Sit down, Miss Comlyn, and tell me just as much or as little as you choose. It is fair to warn you that I am here on Tony's interests, though not on his behalf or even with his knowledge. It is the long vacation, you know, and I did not see how I could spend it better than in poking my nose into his troubles. If some one does not lift him out of the mud he will go straight to the dogs and stay there."

Mavis sat down in the worn leather chair which Kenyon placed for her. For some reason to which as yet he had no clue, his words had called a hard look into the gentle eyes that had always had a smile in them till a month ago.

"What you say is confirmed by this," she handed him an opened envelope. "It must have been put into the letter box in the front door of the dower house some time since today's morning delivery."

Kenyon extracted the sheet of highly scented note paper which the envelope contained and read: "Dear Miss Comlyn,

I am unknown to you, but I hate to think of a decent girl being bullied into marriage with a cad like Jasper Morgan. I expect you consented because he kidded you that he can prove that Sir Anthony West killed his wife and stole her jewels. If that is it you will be making a silly mistake. I can prove that good old Tony, who is one of the best, was hundreds of miles away from Comlyn at the time of the murder. As a matter of fact Tony and I were out on a motor jaunt near London which will need a lot of explanation, but which I will explain if it becomes necessary.

"I should like you to show this to a man who is staying at Merlin Farm as the father of your excellent curate. Mr. Clegg, Senior, as he calls himself, is really dear Tony's best friend and can be relied upon. If you take my tip you will be guided by his advice, which, if I am not very much off the track will be to give Morgan the chuck. I cannot tell you why Morgan is so keen on this match, because I don't know, but you can bet that hard cash is at the bottom of it. Let him do his worst against Tony West. I'll see that his worst isn't as bad as he thinks he can make it."

"Well-Wisher."

Pershing Denies Story

That American Army On Entry Into Luxembourg Suppressed Movement Against Government

Paris. — General headquarters of the American expeditionary forces officially denies the story printed in some American newspapers that the American army on its entry into Luxembourg suppressed a movement directed against the existing government.

When the troops entered Luxembourg, General Pershing issued a proclamation setting forth the reasons for the occupation and assuring the inhabitants that the American army would not interfere in the internal affairs of Luxembourg. The entire spirit of the proclamation, it is declared, has been carried out by the army during its stay on the soil of the grand duchy.

ARCHITECTURE AND BUILDING

Why Build in 1919?

Combination of Circumstances Which Will Bring Revival of Building

There never was a time when Canada, from coast to coast, needed building up so much as right now. Public works, railway construction, municipal improvements and housing in cities and towns, all figure in the after-the-war revival of building. Naturally, there is a tendency just at the present time, for holding back, with the expectation that labor and materials will ease off, but as soon as the spring of 1919 opens we may expect to see many new projects started. Our railway systems need to be overhauled, our canals and docks need repairs and extensions, public highways must be constructed, warehouses, factories, and residences must be built. The shortage of coal has brought home to us all the importance of developing our coal mines, and our timber industry has bright prospects to be kept active in the rebuilding of shattered Europe.

Already the federal government has taken a firm stand in going ahead with many big public works that were held up during the war. Municipalities having had their borrowing restrictions removed, are doubling their budgets this year, to provide for the necessary work that has been shelved since 1914. Manufacturers and merchants are realizing that to keep pace with the spirit of the times, extensions are needed. A general survey of housing accommodations in cities of 25,000 population and over, goes to show that a serious shortage of houses exists all over the country. In summing up the situation in the west there is a combination of circumstances that gives reasons, why building should go ahead in 1919. These might be classed as follows:

That with the speedy return of our soldiers from overseas it is imperative that employment should be provided.

That factory facilities for producing construction and building materials are available at all points.

That there is little danger of labor troubles during the demobilization and reconstruction period, as skilled mechanics, laborers, capital and industry, are all displaying a spirit of "give and take," that makes for safety this year.

That contractors who have been hard hit during the war are willing to take small profits on contracts.

That prices for building, factory and warehouse sites, and for homes, are much cheaper than in pre-war years.

That our railways are better able to make quick and sure delivery of material than in the rush seasons of war and pre-war days.

That in stimulating the building trade, it means that subsidiary factories will be kept going, with full pay rolls, which in itself, spells prosperity.

That if public works, railway construction, municipal improvements and building generally is proceeded with, it will show the world there is confidence in Canada, thus bringing in more capital, industry and immigration.

Immigration and capital is what Canada needs. Take western Canada, two-thirds the size of the United States, having a population of less than one person to the square mile, while Great Britain has 470, France 190 and the United States 33. Surely under these favorable settlement conditions Canada will be the magnet for men and money, during reconstruction. Following the civil war people scoffed at the idea that Chicago would ever become more than a healthy lake town, but agricultural and commercial conditions demanded a great city on the spot where Chicago now stands. So it is with many of the cities of western Canada today, with this difference, that no country in the history of the world has attracted to its borders a larger number in so short a time, previous to the war, than has the Canadian west. The fact that large American financial institutions are already establishing branches in Canada and that Canadian banking houses are extending their service in Great Britain, Europe, and even in the far east, gives hope to Canada of being in a position to participate in foreign trade to a considerable extent.

During pre-war years Western Canada was favorably known in all civilized countries. Canadian soldiers have had the opportunity of mingling with millions of men during the great war, with the result that first hand information has been told of the advantages that Canada, as a land of promise, offered after the war. All pre-war publicity and the convincing facts spread by our men at the front will now begin to bear fruit. What has been held up by war conditions, whether it has been building, real estate, industrial or commercial development, should commence to come back in the near future, in greater volume than ever. The come-back will be gradual and no boom can be expected. Cost of labor, cost of materials, and cost of capital, are elements entering into the speedy revival of building. These must all find a working level. A vision of Canada's future, with a united effort of all classes interested to get together, is the surest, swiftest and safest way to solve our reconstruction problems. As Kipling says:

"It ain't the guns or the armament, or funds that they can pay, But the close co-operation that makes them win the day; It ain't the individual, nor the army as a whole,

CONSTRUCTION WORK

New York

"Since January 1 we have been very busy in the sales department and several important deals are now pending. It is interesting to note that many of the 'old-time' buyers are coming back into the market, men who have not bought realty for several years. These people have kept in touch with conditions and feel that the turning point has been reached and an active market will arrive in the near future.

"The money market situation is not altogether satisfactory, though we find a considerable amount of second mortgage money available. It will only take a little time before all the adverse conditions are eliminated and then we will see one of the good old markets, which we read about occasionally in the papers." — From the New York Herald.

St. Paul Press

The number of homes to be built in St. Paul in 1919 will double the total for the big building year of 1914.

The cost of building such homes will be very nearly normal, around the price prevailing at the beginning of 1918.

Lots—home building property—are lower in price in St. Paul than in many smaller towns of this state and Wisconsin. Taxes also are comparatively low. So are water and insurance rates.

St. Paul is a town of home owners, not cave dwellers.

Probably 60 per cent. of St. Paul home owners have vegetable gardens of their own, the richness of the soil upon which homes are built making gardening not only feasible but profitable.

This is a brief survey of St. Paul, as seen by T. D. McNulty, real estate man and home builder, who adds:

"Increase in the cost of building materials is not so great as is generally supposed. St. Paul yards are well stocked with lumber at practically old prices because shipping restrictions prevented shipments out of the city except on government order." From the St. Paul Press.

Duluth

The Minnesota Realty Owners' and Dealers' association, formed in Minneapolis recently, will begin a campaign at once for the promotion of home and farm ownership in Minnesota. Special committees will be appointed to direct the campaign. They will work in co-operation with the publicity committee in sending out information as to the desirability of property in the Minnesota cities and as to the farms of the state.

In all probability, officers of the association say, the home owning campaign to be conducted by the Minneapolis Real Estate board in the spring will be made a state-wide campaign. Efforts will be made to have the Duluth and St. Paul Real Estate boards put on a campaign at the same time.—From the Duluth Herald.

Britain Will Have Quantities of Meat

Therefore It Will Be Unnecessary to Continue Rationing

London. — A. Brickwell, director of the cold storage department of the food ministry, in the course of an interview, predicted that there will be a very large quantity—indeed almost a glut—of Australian meat available in Great Britain within a few months, and that, therefore, it will be unnecessary to continue rationing.

Mr. Brickwell mentioned that Britain started the war with 30,000,000 cubic feet of cold storage, representing 191,000 tons and that by next October it will have one cubic foot storage for every man, woman and child in the United Kingdom. The cost of stores to date, he showed, was $15,000,000.

A Compact Six-Room House

Return of School Lands Sale

What are Considered to Be Fair Average Values

The returns of school lands during 1918 give a fairly good idea of the demand for land in the prairie provinces of Canada, and of what are considered to be fair average values. All told, there were sold in Saskatchewan and Alberta 623,119 acres, which realized $13,448,771, and on which $1,384,613 were paid in cash. The average price per acre in Saskatchewan last year was higher than in Alberta, being $22.29 to $17.38.

In 1917 the highest average price, $19.20, was realized in Alberta. In Saskatchewan the average was $18.90. In Manitoba it was $11.30. It is thus to be seen that the highest average this year was $3.00 per acre over that in 1917. The average price realized in Saskatchewan this year was $3.39 over that in 1917.

As an evidence of how farm values have increased in the prairie provinces during the last two years the following average prices realized at school lands sale will be of interest:

	Man.	Sask.	Alta.
1916	$9.43	$14.26	$14.00
1917	11.30	18.90	19.20
1918	22.29	17.38

School lands consist of lands reserved in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba with the object of establishing a fund for educational purposes in the three provinces. They comprise two sections (1,280 acres) in every township, or one-eighth of the entire area of the three provinces. The lands are administered in trust by the Dominion government, and can only be disposed of at a sale by public auction to the highest bidder. Sales are held yearly in various parts of the provinces, provided conditions are favorable, the land being sold on ten year payment terms.

After we have beaten our swords into plowshares the next thing will be to straighten out our corkscrews into hat pins.—Kansas City Star.

This compact dwelling has been designed with all the conditions for convenience and comfort in a western Canadian home definitely in mind. The small enclosed porch with the pantry in the lean-to forms a double break between the kitchen and the rear entrance that will make both for convenience at all seasons and comfort in winter for the housewife. The other details of this home have received similar careful consideration by the designer. Note the convenience of ample closet accommodation off the bedrooms, and the linen closet.

To Send Many to Convention

Detroit.—It is announced that the convention of the National Association of Builders' exchanges will be held in Milwaukee the last week of February. Many important matters growing out of the readjustment of the industry, following the close of the war and the removal of building restrictions, will be considered in the convention. The Detroit Builders' and Traders' exchange intends to send a large delegation, and arrangements to that end are being made.

Safeguarding the Future

For a period of more than four years the people of all the great nations, and of many of the smaller nations as well, have been engaged in works of destruction on a scale hitherto unknown in the world's history. Even what might, in a sense, be termed constructive work had for its object the providing of means and machinery whereby the actual work of destruction might be augmented. Almost the only exception to this general rule has been in the production of food that the human race might not become wholly extinct.

For more than fifty years following the American Civil War and the Franco-Prussian war, the peoples of the world were engaged in the multifarious activities of the greatest period of invention and industrial and commercial enterprise ever known. The world was revolutionized in that time, but along with the marvellous transformation which took place in the realms of science, commerce and education, there were also created social and economic conditions resulting in the creation of great combines and financial and industrial institutions, in the massing of unheard of fortunes by the few and the impoverishment of the many, the development of slums in large cities, leading in turn to the spread of socialistic doctrines, the organization of labor, the ensuing struggle between capital and labor, and a general feeling of unrest.

Then came the Great War, and in the face of threatened destruction of those principles of personal liberty and those democratic institutions which are dearer to mankind than all things, the classes and the masses, capital and labor, the learned and the ignorant, in a word all men, laid aside their individual grievances and joined hands in a common defence of those things, the loss of which would have meant the loss of something dearer than life itself. And in the fierce struggle which followed, the work of destruction of life and property went on on a colossal scale. Fifty years of constructive effort were swallowed up in less than five years of wholesale destruction.

Once again the people of the world face the constructive tasks of peace. The work of reconstruction, rehabilitation, must be proceeded with, but under great difficulties. The workers of the world have been reduced by the millions killed, and the hundreds of thousands maimed for life or reduced to physical and nervous wrecks of their former selves. A staggering burden of debt has been rolled up, and the means of carrying that burden reduced. The whole world must be again transformed from a war to a peace basis, and enormous social problems created by the war must be faced and solved.

TO FINANCE GRAIN CROPS

Winnipeg. — Executive councils of the grain exchange and the Canadian council of agriculture held a conference here last week with Hon. Arthur Meighen. The matter under discussion was the financing of Canada's grain crops, it being felt by the grain men that the federal government will be compelled to take active steps to ensure this end, if an export market is to be found for the surplus grain grown in Canada. Hon. Arthur Meighen promised to take the matter up with the cabinet at Ottawa and give it every support.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poisoning, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called freezone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone on a tender, aching corn and soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.

VICTIMS OF LA GRIPPE

Left Weak, Disheartened and An Easy Prey to Other Troubles

A Nova Scotia Man Tells How He Found New Health and Strength

If you have had an attack of la grippe, or Spanish influenza you are not out of danger until your blood is restored to normal. Behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion, and over-sensitive nerves. In this condition the system becomes an easy prey to deadly pneumonia, bronchitis, nervous prostration, rheumatism and even consumption. Ask anyone who has had an attack of influenza what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer "Since I had the grippe I have never been really well." This general feeling of weakness will continue until the blood is built up again, and for this purpose nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first to last these pills make new, rich, red blood which reaches every organ and nerve in the body, and through this weak, despondent victims of influenza are transformed into cheerful, healthy, happy men and women.

Among the many victims of la grippe who proclaim the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mr. Amos Kaulback, of Petite Riviere, N. S., who says: "I was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, or influenza. After a time the early symptoms of the trouble left me, but I did not regain my usual strength, and I had always been a strong man. There were times when I felt I could hardly crawl about, and I was so run down I could scarcely go about my business. I continued taking medicine but it did me no good. Then I found the trouble was affecting my digestion and the disagreeable feeling from this added to my general misery. I was finally advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to try them. I had only been taking the pills a few weeks when I found my strength returning, my appetite improved, and still continuing the use of the pills a few weeks more found me restored to my old-time vigor. I can most strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who have passed through an attack of influenza, as a safe medicine for renewing their strength."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Germany Needs Peace

Will Comply With Conditions Based On the 14 Points

Berlin. — Chancellor Ebert told the United Press that Germany will do everything to comply with peace conditions based on the 14 points, but that if the allies make further demands he will not take the responsibility of signing the peace terms.

He said Germany needs peace immediately that she may get food and materials so her people can go to work. He declared the Spartacists lost their revolt and that no further serious outbreaks will occur if the people are fed. If they are not fed, he said, "we must be ready for anything."

"We must have a fair peace," declared Ebert. "We stand on the 14 points, which was the basis on which we signed the armistice. We will do everything to comply with conditions founded on these points. It is possible, though, that the enemy will make further demands. Germany cannot accept them. I could not take the responsibility for signing the peace terms in that case. I could not take the consequences and I would resign. I don't know what would happen after that."

Asked what he thought of the responsibility for the war, Ebert said: "That is a question I cannot answer off hand. Personally, I feel that the blame was not Germany's alone."

Japs Start Dry Campaign

Constantinople Named as Capital

Greece Wants Ancient City Set Aside for Nation League

Paris. — If Greece cannot have Constantinople for its own seat of government it wants that ancient city to be set aside as the permanent capital of the league of nations. This developed during discussion of Premier Venizelos' presentation of Greece's political and territorial aspirations.

Greek delegates pointed out that establishment of Constantinople as capital of the league of nations would automatically result in its internationalization, together with the Dardanelles. It was further suggested that the immediate hinterland on both sides of the Strait should be placed under the control of the league. Thus, the freedom of the Dardanelles and elimination of the Turk from Europe, two important problems of the peace settlement, would be settled simultaneously.

Venizelos would divide North Epirus between Greece and Albania. He would have the Greco-Bulgarian boundary follow the Ardar and Maritza rivers, thus cutting off Bulgaria from the Aegean sea, giving Greece a great portion of ancient Thrace. Armenia, he suggests, should be made a separate state, but the villages of Abrusa, Aidin, Sanjaks and Ismid with the adjacent islands, should be annexed by Greece.

The city of Brusa, however, he would turn over to the new Turkish government, together with its Marmoran port.

The ease with which corns and warts can be removed by Holloway's Corn Cure is its strongest recommendation. It seldom fails.

May Not Admit Germany to League

Paris. — The admission of Germany to the league of nations is the subject of discussion in peace circles. While they are as yet academic, some interesting views have been developed.

In the opinion of Leon Bourgeois, the French authority on the league of nations, the league for the present must be composed exclusively of the associated nations and those neutral states which since 1917 have adhered to the rules of the second Hague peace conference and who have during the war strictly obeyed the obligations of international rights. Later, M. Bourgeois feels, Germany may prove her title to membership.

Italians Seized Ship

Hauled Down American Flag and Substituted Italian Colors

Washington. — According to a report made public here by the official information bureau of the Kingdom of Serbia, Croats and Slovenes, a Serbo-Croatian vessel, the Dinara, flying the American flag and having a navigation license issued by the American naval commander in the Adriatic, was seized at Jelsa, January 16, by the Italian forces who hauled down the American flag and carried off the ship under Italian colors.

The Dinara is shown by Austrian records to have been an Austrian vessel of 1,118 tons gross register, built at Trieste in 1888. There are no records of her recent movements.

President To Be Elected By People

Must Have Been a Citizen of Germany for 10 Years

London. — Details of the proposed new constitution for Germany, drawn up recently at a conference of widely known authorities on constitutional law, including the state secretary of the interior in the Ebert government, are given in an official despatch sent out from Berlin and picked up here. It states that the empire is to consist of its former component states besides any territories which by virtue of the right of self-determination desire to be received into the empire.

The despatch declares that the people have the right, regardless of former frontiers, to erect new German free states within the empire provided any such free state has a population of 2,000,000. If the people of a border country wish to join the German empire the assent of the German people shall be required.

The imperial president who is to be elected by the people must be 35 years old, and must have been a citizen of Germany for 10 years before the election. He will be elected by an absolute majority of all the votes of the empire.

The president will represent the empire, but declaration of war or conclusions of peace rest with the Reichstag. Treaties with foreign states require the assent of the Reichstag. As soon as a league of nations, the object of which is the exclusion of secret treaties, has been formed, all treaties with the league shall require the assent of the Reichstag.

The imperial president's tenure of office will be for seven years, and his re-election will be permissible.

The imperial government will be composed of a chancellor and ministers chosen by the president of the Reichstag. The government must have the confidence of the house of deputies and shall be responsible to the Reichstag.

Took Peace News to Arctic

Dawson, Y. T. — Special Indian runners who were despatched by the government in November with anti-influenza serum have arrived back from the interior, completing the round trip of 1,000 miles through the Arctic wilderness, including the crossing of the Rocky mountains. They brought the first news from the Arctic coast since summer. They also took to the Arctic coast the first news of the declaration of peace. Col. Knight has been advised by the Fairbanks health commissioner that the influenza is raging all along the Copper river among the Indians.

Russian Rulers Are Bankrupt

London. — Nikolai Lenin, the Bolsheviki premier of Russia, and Leon Trotsky, minister of war and marine, speaking recently before the Moscow soviet, confessed that the Bolsheviki regime is bankrupt, especially regarding industrial production, finance and food, according to a Helsingfors despatch to the Mail.

They said it was time that experts from the middle class were invited to co-operate with the soviets. "A similar invitation has been addressed, the speakers said, to intellectuals, who have heretofore stood outside the civil war."

Catarrh and Dyspepsia

Undermined the System and the Nerves Gave Way—Hospital Treatment Failed—Read How Cure Was Effected

Preeceville, Sask., Jan. 29. — This letter will give you an idea of what you may expect from this combined treatment for catarrh. While Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder affords relief from the stuffed-up air passages, headaches and annoying symptoms of catarrh, the Nerve Food enriches the blood and builds up the system, so that the disease is entirely overcome. This is the ideal treatment for catarrh and its ravages on the human system.

Ed. L. Jones, Preeceville, Sask., writes: "I suffered for some time with catarrh and dyspepsia, and my nervous system became quite run down. My food disagreed with me, and I was constantly bothered with indigestion. I also suffered from frequent headaches. I tried several doctors, and was in the hospital for a time, but could get no relief from any treatment until I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Catarrh Powder. This combined treatment has done wonders for me. I never have a headache now, and am feeling fine. The Nerve Food has built up my system, and the Catarrh Powder, which I am still using, is helping my catarrh greatly. I intend to continue its use until completely cured."

"I may also state that I have found Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills splendid for weak or lame back. This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Ed. Jones, and believe his statement regarding Dr. Chase's Medicines to be true and correct. — Mr. George Downs, J.P."

Packing Plants are Busy

Growing Industry Bringing Increasing Prosperity

In December, 1918, the disbursements of one of the packing plants at Edmonton, Alberta, for cattle, hogs, sheep, calves, turkeys, chickens, geese, ducks, cream, and for freight and labor connected therewith, amounted to $1,234,000. These figures convey some idea of the great and growing importance of this industry to the city and surrounding territory. This territory is capable of considerably greater production and with the convenient markets, great development is being looked forward to during the next few years. The packing companies are preparing for this development by increasing the size of their plants.

British Troops to Leave Belgium

Brussels. — In order to facilitate the revictualing and reconstruction of Belgium, which has been hampered by the railways being used exclusively for military purposes, Marshal Foch, at the request of the Belgian government, has decided to withdraw the British and American forces now in Belgium and employ them elsewhere.

The food minister has left for Paris to make arrangements for further measures to relieve the food situation.

Livesay Eulogizes Canadian Troops

Montreal. — J. F. B. Livesay, assistant general manager of the Canadian Press, Limited, at Winnipeg, who went overseas last August to represent the Canadian Press with the Canadian forces at the front, arrived in the city, having come over on the Olympic. Mr. Livesay, who left for Toronto, en route home, speaks most enthusiastically of the work of the Canadian army corps.

A Kidney Remedy

Kidney troubles are frequently caused by badly digested food which overtaxes these organs to eliminate the irritant acids formed. ## Troops on Olympic Were Comfortable

New System Was Used in Handling Men During Voyage

Halifax, N. S. — That all the Canadians now overseas can be brought home as comfortably as were those on the Olympic is the opinion of Lieut.-Col. Yates, officer commanding the troops on board the great ocean ferry throughout her recent voyage. Col. Yates said he felt that this trip had been the most successful yet made by a transport bringing home Canadians.

A new system was used in handling the men during this voyage. The ship was divided into three parts with a major in command of each and an adjutant as his aide. Thus the wants of the men might be more readily noticed than in the case of a ship under the command of a general staff.

The 5,500 troops arriving on the Olympic were disembarked within eleven hours and fourteen special trains were despatched within fifteen hours. This is believed to be a record for this side of the Atlantic. The best previous record was made when the Olympic docked on Dec. 14, when 5,000 troops were landed in twenty-two hours and ten trains despatched in eight and one-half hours.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm Powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

Canadian Cattle on U. S. Markets

The shipments of cattle through North Portal, Saskatchewan, from the ranches of Saskatchewan and Alberta to the markets of St. Paul and Chicago, have never been equalled. During the past two months and a half over 1,300 cars, totalling 30,000 head and valued at about $3,000,000, have been exported, and the shipments, owing to the mild weather, still continue.

The Busy Store

Important Notice to our Customers OUR POLICY FOR 1919

We are forced by existing conditions to adopt the following for the year 1919: In fairness to our customers we are bound to give them the same treatment as we receive in the way of terms. All the wholesalers and manufacturers are now on what is known as the 30 day basis, but with our system the customer gets 60 days if he so requires it. For example:

Your purchase for this month if not paid for by the 15th of February you will receive notice from our office that your account is due and payable and if not paid by the end of February you will again be asked for a settlement in full.

It is generally known that the store that gives the longest terms must necessarily charge the longest prices. Mail order competition is so keen that in order to meet their prices it is absolutely necessary to meet them or nearly so in terms.

We do not believe in making the customer that pays cash for his goods pay for the one that does not. In event of our collecting any bad or doubtful debts the same will be charged directly to profit and loss account. In marking our merchandise we are not adding anything on for possible loss through growing credit. Our representative will be calling on the town trade and will solicit and deliver orders and any business coming in through this channel will not only be appreciated but will receive our prompt attention.

We further wish to have it known that any person who purchases goods from the Busy Store and finds them not what they were represented to be we will gladly refund the purchase price, and you will not need to replace them with other goods. Surely the foregoing policy will meet with the approval of the good people of Gleichen and district.

Yours for service,

East Arrowwood Doings

A matter for future consideration by the Literary Society is the disposition of the $170 taken in from the sale of boxes at the recent book sale. Among suggestions are an organ and special entertainments.

The boys of the advanced department in school have organized an athletic association to look after the school sports. The officers elected are: President, J. H. Shatto; Vice-President, Fred Robinson; Sec.-Treas., Cecil Culp. The principal will act as coach or umpire. The boys voted to include basketball and to admit girls into the organization. Officers hold office till end of the term in June.

The annual meeting of the U. F. A. has come and gone and the East Arrowwood delegates have returned reporting an excellent time at Edmonton. The local delegates who attended the meeting were J. H. Brubaker, L. S. Shatto, J. Culp and O. Tignor. Mrs. Shatto, Mrs. Culp and Mrs. Tignor also made the trip with their husbands. Interesting reports on the convention were expected at the next local meeting.

It would be better if those sending in names of the for the Soldiers Roll of Honor would print them as many errors are made in writing them.

The U. F. A. and U.F.W. A. delegates to the "Farmers Parliament" held in Edmonton last week have returned and report a very interesting and successful convention.

The United Poultry Co. expect to entertain Gleichen theatre guests with a play of "Mutt and Jeff" about March 1st. This company has yet to fail in giving this town a good show.

In order to protect their goods in this town and himself Manager Grisham took interest in all his contractors a clause insures that if any contractor is not satisfied, or better still, give to the Red Cross.

The Gleichen committee of the Winter League wishes to apologize to the people who attended the talk by Prince of Wales on Wednesday last. This lady came to us highly recommended by the representative of the Ellison-White Dominion Agency and all things done by the Gleichen committee were done in good faith. We appreciate the way the people stood for it.

J. B. Legat drove over in his auto last week all of the from Drumheller and spent a few days in town. He reports the roads in good condition except a little just this side of Standard.

Prices Radwell may be a real live royal prince, but a real prince also proved a failure in Gleichen and the Ellison-White Co. have since received severe criticism for sending 6 Gleichen to such a royal prince. The talk lasted just 31 minutes and his brevity was the best part. The Opera House was well filled and the criticism was given with rapid hearing. However, the evening's enjoyment was not spoiled by the failure of the lecture for all went home happy. The town had saved the situation and earned for themselves a reputation for providing first-class entertainment. In fact after the dance the general opinion was: "We want no more expensive oracles."

The Cost of ALBERTA MUNICIPAL HAIL INSURANCE is so low that no farmer can afford to be without it

Consider this. Over a period of five years (1914-1918) The Alberta Municipal Hail Insurance District has carried a total of $38,000,000.00 of insurance at an average premium of less than 45¢. During that time the average cost of operating expense was only a trifle over five cents on the dollar. The new plan promises even better results.

As there are no profits to be made or dividends to be paid, it provides the opportunity for fair adjustment of all claims on the basis of actual damage done.

You will save money by voting for Municipal Hail Insurance at the forthcoming election.
